APPEAL IS MADE FOR CHINA RELIEF BY THE CHAIRMAN

Pastor Peters, Chairman of Campaign in Mason County, Issues Public Appeal for Funds.

Rev. W. S. Peters, who is chairman of the China Relief Fund in Mason county, has issued this statement:

"There has already been a notice in the papers that I have been appointed chairman of Mason county for the China Relief fund. I am sure that I appreciate the fact with all other Mason county folks that there have been drives continuously it seems the past months, and that any additional drive would mean more or less of a burden, but in accepting the chairmanship of the Famous Relief Fund I did so because I felt that it would not be Christian to refuse so important a need, and I also know that the residents of Maysville and Mason county would not fail to do their best when the matter was put fairly before them, so this is not an organized drive requiring reports and checking up and so on, but just a matter that I wish to lay upon your heart asking that whatever you feel that the Lord wants you to give in the amount that we are asking you for. If you feel satisfied to give nothing, with the people of China starving and you living in abundance, that is a matter for you to decide and not me. Already there have been subscriptions coming in and I want to let you all know as nearly as I can from time to time just who are the contributors in this fund. The following is the list to date as I have received it:

Maysville Presbyterian Church, Helena Station, $10; Miss Mary A. Flach, Maysville, $10; Dover M. E. South, Sunday School, $5.10; A Friend from the county, $10; Beasley Christian Church, $25; Mr. John M. Chambers, Maysville, $10; Mr. Robert Hoeft, Maysville, $5.

"Any one desiring to give to this fund if you will forward your check to Mr. R. A. Cochran, or myself, we will at once see that it is forwarded to the proper parties and that the suffering ones in China are relieved to that extent.

W. S. PETERS, Chairman Mason County.

SLACK IS POPULAR CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Well-Known Young Man, in Race to Win Democratic Nomination For County Sheriff.

In another part of this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. Charles Slack as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Mason county. Mr. Slack is being backed in his race for this nomination by the younger Democrats of the county and by a great host of personal friends among the older Democrats.

No man has announced for office in Mason county in recent years who has been more popular personally. At his place of business he has been thrown with the public for years. He is a fellow built along lines calculated to make friends of acquaintances in short order and to hold the friendship so gained because of his steadfastness and honor. He is, and has always been, in the fullest sense of the word a man, and this alone, is the secret of his personal popularity.

Mr. Slack served Mason county as Coroner and as such proved himself a most efficient and faithful public servant. During his term as Coroner he was a terror to criminals whose crimes came under the investigation of his office and there is every reason that he would make a good sheriff.

He will make a formidable race for the Democratic nomination.

WOMEN'S CLUB HISTORIAN MAKES ADDRESS TODAY.

Mrs. W. T. Lafferty, chairman of the division of History and Research of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Kentucky, is the guest of the Mason County Women's Club. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Lafferty addressed the women of the Washington neighborhood and today she will address the Maysville women at the home of Mrs. Darlington Fee.

MIKE BROWN SEEKS DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR SHERIFF

Prominent Maysville Merchant Seeks To Be Democratic Nominee for Sheriff—Served as Deputy Nine Years.

Mike Brown, Maysville merchant, today announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Mason county.

Mr. Brown, besides being one of the most popular business men in Mason county, served for several years as a deputy sheriff and is therefore well qualified for the office he seeks. He has been a life-long Democrat and is personally popular in all parts of the county. Mr. Brown's announcement follows:

"To the Democratic Voters: "After mature consideration I have concluded to announce for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff in the Primary of August 6th, 1921. The eight years I served as Deputy Sheriff was a valuable experience and would be helpful in fulfilling the duties of Sheriff.

"I am mindful of the fact that four years ago the Democracy of Mason county honored me with the nomination for sheriff, but together with the other Democratic candidates was unfortunate in the November election. It is well known, however, that the defeat only served to quicken my devotion to the Democratic cause, and during the past four years I have been on the firing line in every political battle just as I have been for the twenty years preceding, and doing all within my power to promote the success of our party and vindicate the immortal principles of justice and equal rights to all.

"I have gladly labored all my life in the cause of Democracy, having served as Secretary of the Democratic Executive Committee for several years, have acted as Campaign Chairman and promptly answered every call to service. I feel that the time has come when Democrats, without regard to past difference, should unite and with a common cause and a common purpose enter vigorously upon a program to make certain the triumph of our grand old party throughout the state, and there is no better place to start than in this fine old county of Mason. I want to do my part to this result. It is my belief that I can do the best and most effectively as your candidate for sheriff. But if in your wisdom you decree otherwise, there will be no lessening of my efforts to elect the ticket you nominate, for the cause of Democracy is greater than the merits or ambition of any individual.

"I have always taken great pride in our county and city and have never lost an opportunity to boost them, and to have the privilege of serving them in the capacity of sheriff is an honor which any one might proudly covet, and one which would be devotedly cherished by me always.

"In soliciting your support and good will I pledge you that, if elected sheriff, it will be my earnest and constant purpose to conduct the affairs of the office in such a manner as to warrant the approval of every good citizen of Mason county.

"MIKE BROWN."

GROWERS FAVOR CO-OPERATIVE SYSTEM OF MARKETING

Proposed Plan Calls For Association Which Will Handle Crop For Members of the Organization.

Louisville, Ky., March 30. — The plan of co-operating marketing to tobacco presented by Aaron Sapiro, co-operative marketing expert of California, yesterday at an all-day conference of tobacco growers, was favored in a resolution adopted by the meeting.

A temporary committee was then appointed to begin immediately work of organizing under the plan. Tobacco growers and representatives from every tobacco growing section of the country were present at the conference, held under auspices of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, and approved the plan, outlined as follows:

1. A marketing association, composed solely of actual growers and managed by directors, two members of which shall be chosen by public officials to represent the public at all meetings.

2.—A warehouse corporation, holding stock as follows and owned by the marketing association: (a) Non-voting stock, preferred, owned by banks or by private investors and divided into five classes, one class to be retired each year from the proceeds of tobacco passing through the warehouse. Dividends are guaranteed.

(b) Voting common stock, which shall be issued to growers, dollar for dollar as the preferred stock is retired. Nine shares shall be issued to directors.

(c) The warehousing corporation shall be controlled by the marketing association. It shall make a cross contract to cover costs of operating expenses and for money to retire preferred stock.

3.—The grower agrees to sell all tobacco to the association for five years. If a lien is given, the marketing association shall own the crop jointly with the lien holder for the benefit of both. The association shall grade all tobacco and establish a pool for each type and grade.

4.—The association shall sell all tobacco and return the proceeds to the growers, minus operating expenses and deductions to retire preferred stock. Every grower shall get the same return for a similar quantity and quality of tobacco.

DENTON GIVES ACCOUNT OF LEWIS SHOOTING

Man Held In Connection With Lewis County Murder Tells His Story Of Happenings.

In connection with the killing of Thomas Horsley, Lewis county farmer, last week at Harris, the Fleming Gazette says in part:

Mr. Denton's account of the killing is as follows: He with Jeff Manning and Sherman Crain were on a trip through Lewis buying cattle. Mr. Denton furnishing the money to finance the purchases. Manning, it seems, got to gambling with Horsley and others Wednesday night near the place where the trouble occurred. Thursday morning Jeff Manning and Raymond Denton got into an argument with Horsley who was on foot, by the roadside. When the trouble started Denton started away and had gotten but a short distance when a shot or shots were fired. He supposed Manning or Horsley were shooting.

Denton, Manning and Horsley, according to another account, were all three engaged in gambling just before the trouble arose and Denton left to get away. After the shooting occurred he continued to come this way without stopping to see what damage had been done by Manning. Manning followed and the two were afterwards together and then separated again on the way home. The killing occurred near Junior Hall, a lodge building.

Manning has been in trouble before for shooting a man near the Parks Hill camp ground some years ago and he served a prison sentence one time. Horsley, the man killed, was about 45 years of age and conducted a grist mill near where the killing occurred. This is in a section where a good deal of trouble has been experienced with moonshiners.

Walter Thomas, formerly with McIlvahn, Knox & Diener, will reopen the repair shop of the late John O'Mahoney in Traxel's alley, where he will do packing, repairing and moving of furniture.

5.—The association will raise money to make first payments to growers on delivery.

Robert W. Bingham, chairman, acting on authority of the Burley Tobacco Growers, who met last Friday and Saturday, and the resolution yesterday, announced the appointment of W. E. Simma, Woodford county; John T. Collins, Paris; James C. Stone, Lexington; and R. M. Baker, Carrollton, to act with him as the preliminary committee to put the plan in operation.

MEETING TONIGHT IN INTEREST OF BETTER LIVE STOCK

State Cattle Experts Here to Address Mass Meeting tonight in Interest of Better Live Stock on Mason County Farms.

The series of meetings in the interest of better live stock in Mason county will open tonight with a mass meeting at the Mason county court house to which all persons interested in better live stock and in improving both the dairy and beef cattle of Mason county are cordially invited.

Some of the best informed cattle experts in the country will be present to make addresses. Besides the heads of the cattle departments of the State Experiment Station, there will be an expert from the Federal Department of Animal Industry at Washington and others who will tell the value of purebred cattle and, carefully tested herds of dairy and beef cattle. Most of the herds of Mason county are now carefully tested for tuberculosis and those that are not tested should be tested at once.

People are becoming advised to these matters in this section and it will not be long before Maysville patrons will require that their dairymen have their herds tested and that the butchers serve only beef from carefully tested cattle.

It is hoped that there will be a good attendance at tonight's meeting. Another such meeting will be held Thursday night at Maysville and on Friday night at Milvera.

EIGHT ADDITIONS AT REVIVAL ON TUESDAY.

Tuesday was another great day at the Baptist revival. During the day there were eight additions, seven at night and one at the afternoon service, bringing the total for the meeting to forty up to this time. The largest audience that has yet heard Dr. Vines heard him last night. The large auditorium was filled and it was necessary to place chairs in both aisles. The meeting continues with services at 2:30 and 7:15. The public is invited to all services.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

THE THING TO DO IS TO ADVERTISE ON A DECLINING MARKET.

We have been suspicious for a long time that the National Chamber of Commerce was an institution that to say the least is unprogressive. Here and there we caught them issuing statements and theories that belonged to the latter part of the nineteenth century, indicating that this National Chamber is ruled to a considerable extent by the men who were leaders in business and industry back in the eighties and nineties.

It is not long since this same chamber began a campaign for the so-called "open shop," and, whether the open shop is a good thing or not, botched the campaign so badly that the third decade of the twentieth century is ashamed of it.

Now we find the said chamber starting a survey "to the end that operating costs shall be cut down during the present depression by manufacturers, jobbers and retail merchants." Good thing. Very. But the very first question asked is:

"What have you done to reduce your publicity costs to a normal basis?" That is, we presume, to the basis of the nineteenth century.

Evidently these people have been sound asleep for years. Evidently no inkling has reached them of what the extraordinary use of advertising publicity has done during the past five years. Probably the biggest retail advertiser in Eastern America is Edward A. Filane, of Boston, and he says that he will INCREASE HIS ADVERTISING ON A DECLINING MARKET in order to keep up his profits. All over the country, in big towns and little, important merchants are saying the same thing, and acting on it, because they know what advertising does.

The National Chamber of Commerce should retire their old fogies.

STARTLING CONDITION OF CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS

The finding in the official investigation of the disastrous Portland wreck that cost over a score of lives is startling in at least one feature. The blame is fixed without equivocation on the engineer of the Michigan Central train which ran its cargo of human freight directly in front of the train having the right of way. The judgment was that he ran the block set against him with the signal lights showing unmistakably. The fireman is made accessory before the fact in that he carelessly misread the signals and gave the engineer "clear" when the track was plainly blocked. The engineer simply took his work. The finding is by the Bureau of Safety of the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is in accord with the earlier charges and the virtual concessions made on the part of the Michigan Central.

That in itself is a most damning showing for men having in their charge hundreds of human lives. It is of course criminal carelessness in the meaning of the law. But deplorable and inexcusable as is this sustained charge, it is lost in the startling revelations that this sort of carelessness was not the exception but the rule with this particular train crew. That the railroad company's records show instances after instance of like derelictions. The engineer had been four times suspended for infraction of safety regulations and the fireman had been similarly disciplined at times for like carelessness. In spite of this these two men, the former also having been declared to have defective vision, were continued in positions upon which depended daily, hourly, the safety, even the lives of hundreds of trusting passengers paying the railroad for safe conveyance.

Taking chances on human lives is all too common a practice by those who invite human confidence for profit. It is a custom that ought to be drastically discouraged.

JUST A LITTLE CHRISTIAN CHARITY, COLONEL.

Our distinguished—and we had hoped extinguished—fellow citizen of the Chautauqua circuit, Colonel William Jennings Bryan, is flattering his vanity again. Habits of a lifetime are hard to break and there is grave question as to his having even tried earnestly to overcome his propensity to self-laudation. Anyhow, he very frankly assures himself that: "With the women voting I am confident I would be elected should I decide to try." The comment was called forth by the complimentary request induced in all innocence from the Young Women's Christian Association of Miami, Fla., that he run for President in 1924.

It is consoling to have faith that Colonel Bryan's expression of confidence is merely self-jolly, as it were. Otherwise the country would no doubt be confronted with the painful duty of once again protecting the Colonel from the pitfalls of political pre-eminence. For it's a cinch that convinced of a winning chance he would certainly be among the earliest of sweepstakes entries. And lest in any event he make the mistake of being overly persuaded by womanly courtesy in Christian spirit given, it seems well to remind him that the Y. W. C. A. is not a political organization. Also that the woman in politics is, after the manner of her men folks, disposed to be practical and partisan to a well-defined degree.

ANOTHER ALLEGED "CONSUMPTION" CURE.

One of the saddest things we know of is the perennial announcement by some faker or some over-enthusiastic student that "a cure has at least been discovered for consumption." They all turn out bad. Not that we would not hail with delight a true cure, or that we would even hint to the scientists that they halt their quest for a cure. But these fake announcements raise hopes in millions of sufferers, and their friends and relatives, that are doomed to disappointment.

Now we have a cable from Paris that a cure for tuberculosis has been discovered in that city. We hope it is the real goods, but the chances are great that it is not the hoped-for cure.

Everybody's heart goes out to those who are battling the dread white plague. These people are real fighters—real heroes. They never give up and until the enemy takes its toll.

Our advice to the tubercular and their friends is to continue to follow the instructions of their physicians. DO what your doctor says, get all the fresh air possible, do not overdo, rest as much as possible, don't worry.

And fight on—and on.

DEMOCRATIC FUNERAL AGAIN.

Washington. —Final obsequies upon the Democratic party have been pronounced by Senator Reed, of Missouri, himself a Democrat. He says:

"All the funeral orations which have been pronounced since the obsequies over Abol have never put life into a corpse, and all the efforts to revive the League of Nations by oratory in the Senate will be equally futile. This is a government of the people. If the people have anything to say in the Government of the United States, then the League of Nations was condemned to death and executed on the second day of last November; and the Democratic Party came very near suffering the same fate at the same time.

"From a party which had polled a popular majority of, I think, over a million votes only four years before, which had been in charge of the executive department of the government during a great and successful war, we ended, or are in a few hours to end, our grip or control of the executive department at the mandate of more than 7,000,000 above a majority of the people.

"Gentlemen may expend all of the time and energy they possess in seeking for other causes for this defeat, but he is blind indeed and deaf indeed who does not know that the Democratic ship went on the rocks because its captain was trying to steer us into the false harbor of internationalism."

LOVE UNTANGLES RED TAFE.

Good-looking immigrant girls need no longer fear the literacy test as a bar to their entrance to the United States. All that is now needed is a willing and unattached ex-soldier. A young Yugoslav girl has made this discovery and opened the way for her unfortunate sisters. Sent for by a relative in Buffalo, N. Y., she left Yugoslavia a short time ago and soon arrived at Ellis Island, but there she was held for deportation because of her inability to pass the literacy test.

When her relative, who had come to New York to meet her, was about to return, disappointed, to Buffalo, it was jokingly suggested to him that, according to a bill recently passed by Congress, if the girl should marry an American ex-soldier with an honorable discharge, she might come in, but that that was her only chance. The chance seemed a small one, but he had been gone only a day when the girl received a telegram from him, saying, "I have a bridegroom," and the next day the groom himself arrived.

He was a Yugoslav who had served in the American army during the war, and, eager to marry a girl from the old country, had lost no time in seizing the opportunity, when it offered. Both parties being pleased with each other, the ceremony was soon completed, and no further objections were made to the bride's entering the country.

New York. — The newest national flag on display in this City of Many Flags is that of the French protectorate of Syria. It hangs in a restaurant down in Washington street — that habitat of itinerant ring salesmen and the swartly vendors of all sorts of handkerchiefs from the Near East. The flag is the Tricolor of France, and in the white bar is an evergreen tree, representing the cedar of Lebanon.

Jammed bus tops; frequented bridge paths; children in Central Park; distracted lookers through office windows, over the roof tops, through the electric sign skeletons, and on to invisible golf links; more or less hectic discussions of the Palmer bill ruling and what it means; MYRIADS of quilted satin coats, a tremendous impetus in the sales used automobiles, over-stayed lunch hours; and subtle apartment ads; these are the highlights of the early Spring in New York. And they have just exactly the same effect on the population generally as have crocuses and robins and garden-planting elsewhere. The signs may not be a soul-filling, but the causes and effects are.

Maybe this was one symptom of Springtime: A man who said he was Edward Hopkinson Smith and lived at the Hotel Biltmore, went to an automobile showroom the other day — of used cars, either — and having chosen at $4,000 car, offered his check in payment. He was surprised and grieved to discover they wouldn't take so goodly a check from a stranger, and expressed his surprise in the hatred with which he started to leave the place. He conquered his grievance long enough, however, to come back as das kfor a loan of 25 cents with which he might take a taxi. Later he was taken in custody as having escaped.

WOMEN'S WOES

Mayville Women Are Finding Relief At Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know. Mrs. E. L. Cullen, 322 West Second street, Mayville, says: "Three years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble and my back ached continually. I had no ambition to do my housework and everything seemed a drag to me while going about it. I had blinding, dizzy spells and my head ached all the time. My kidneys were not acting regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I sent to Wood & Son's drug store and got a box. After using them I got over the trouble entirely and have never since been bothered. I willingly recommend this remedy."

Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cullen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

What Your Kidneys Should Do For You

The kidneys are really filters, finely organized for their work of cleansing and purifying the blood, selecting and throwing out waste products which would be as poisonous if permitted to remain in the system. When your kidneys are out of order, the impurities are not removed and remain to poison the system, causing backache, swollen or stiff joints, rheumatic pains, puffiness under the eyes, floating specks, biliousness, weakness and pale, waxy, dry skin.

WAS MISERABLE AND ALL TIRED OUT
"I suffered with kidney trouble and have taken many kinds of medicine without getting relief. I used to have severe pains across my back and felt miserable and all tired out, but after taking Foley Kidney Pills I am well. In fact I have not been bothered with kidney trouble since taking the pills."—Mrs. C. J. Ellis, 505 8th Ave., Sioux Falls, S. D.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

are made from the purest and finest medicines, accepted as the most helpful for kidney trouble and bladder ailments. They cost far more to make than the average kidney pills, for the high standard of their making is never deviated from, no matter how the cost of ingredients advances.

Maybe this is supposed to be a deterrent to too early marriages. And again, it might not work out that way. Anyway, Vice-Chancellor Malcolm G. N. Buehman, over in New Jersey, has ruled that any marriage which the bridegroom is under eighteen must be considered as a "trial marriage," which he may terminate whenever he desires. The ruling was made in the case of a man who decided he wished to have his marriage annulled. And annulled it will be.

Through the example of the lowly small we are to have the principle of heredity proven to us, now. Professor Harry Crampton, of the American Museum of Natural History, just home from Polynesia, has brought with him a thousand or so specimens of these little creatures, and declares that they prove the theory that evolution is the result of heredity and not of environment. There are large numbers of facts given in his proof; but the thought of the small sticking true to his caste through countless generations is such an attractive one that details seem unimportant.

No one can insist any longer that playwrights and managers refuse to credit their audiences with any intelligence. For several seasons that plaint has regularly been put forward; they "played down" to a lower plain of understanding that the audience really possessed, said the plaintiffs. Now then, a perfectly serious author, and an equally serious producer and manager have put on a play which only a ouija board of a very high understanding, indeed, could decipher offhand. For instance, at one stage, an actor goes to open a door. There is no indication of wind of any other force, animate or inanimate, but it takes all of his strength to force the door open. And that means that he is struggling against the force of nature. So I was assured by one who was "on the inside"; but there was no word given to the hol polloi as to all. They were just supposed to get it.

There is no escaping the fact that the audiences are taking better to such things as "The Love Special," the true "hero" type of drama, acted for the screen by Wallace Reid, than they are to the wholly symbolical affairs, whether they are screened or talked. "The Love Special" is the sort of thing that, after all, we do enjoy. It has our own Rocky Mountains in it, and steam engines tearing through them, racing autos, hurrying dams, a lovely heroine—acted by Agnes Ayres—and a hero as is a hero. The play is made from Frank Spearman's novel, "The Magnate's Daughter," and all of us who remember Frank Spearman's thrilling railroad stories can be prepared for the picture.

AMERICA PRINTS CZECH BILL.

A new Czechoslovak 10-crown note is just off the press of the American Bank Note Company, and is said by American critics to be the most artistic piece of work ever done by the company for a foreign government. The face of the note contains at the left a conventional design with the figures "100" on either side of the heraldic Bohemian lion rampant. At the right is a symbolic female figure representative of the Western Slavs, with a decorative background made up of hidden leaves together with typical peasant ornaments of the Czechs and Slovaks.

The reverse side is symmetrically balanced, the center being a splendid engraving of the famous Charles Bridge of Prague, with the thousand-year old castle of Hradecany and the carved spires of the Cathedral of St. Guy (Vlt.) looming in the far perspective. At either side is a typical Czech or Slovak peasant girl in the folk costume.

The paintings used for the engravings are the work of Alphonse Mucha, the central government in Belgrade-Czechoslovakia's most renowned living artist, whose huge canvasses, representing the growth and development of the Slav nations, have recently been on exhibition in the Brooklyn Museum of Art and are soon to be shown in Washington, D. C.

MUSICAL PROGRAM RENDERED BY ST. PATRICK'S PUPILS

Delightful Musical Program Rendered At Concert Held Tuesday Evening.

A post-lenten entertainment given by the Junior students in piano, violin and voice, who constitute the Effa Ellis Perfield Club, last evening filled the spacious drawing rooms of the musical department of the Sisters of St. Francis with the parents and guardians of those participating in the musical features each and every one of whom acquitted herself in a manner richly deserving the rapturous applause bestowed. The selections were the work of a master mind in program building, chosen as was each number not only to display the fine artistry taught at this school of music, but at the same time to entertain, both of which objects were fully attained. The Junior musical classes range from little tots hardly able to reach the key board, to the higher ups, every one of whom displayed surprising ability, the tenderness of the years of the performers considered. We subjoin herewith the program which was rendered:

Opening Song — "We Hope You've Brought Your Smiles Along."
"Tripping O'er the Meadow" (Streabhog) — Almota Miller, Margaret Pardon.

"In Hanging Gardens" (E. Davis) — Helen Diener.
Vocal Solo — "Sweet Forget-Me-Not" (M. Jodry) — Helen Fisher.

"The Skaters" (H. Cramm) — Marguerite Caproni, Thelma Dinger.
"Golden Glow Reveler" (Chas. Henlein) — Hazel Larkin.

(a) "Slumber Lahn" (E. Heim) Violin selection—(b) "Champagne Song" (Mozart) — Thelma Dinger, Thelma Mulligan.

"Brother's Birthday March" (Streabhog) — Almota Miller.
"Jackson Park" (D. Creih) — Iola Rasp, Helen Diener.

Violin, "Lilly of the Valley" (A. Sartorio)—Helen Fisher.
"Two Little Maids," Vocal (P. Wingate)—Hazel Larkin, Iola Rasp.

"Dancing on the Veranda" (B. Anthony)—Thelma Dinger.
"Warbling Birds" (C. Henschel)—Annette Desmond, Elizabeth Drennan.

"May Breezes" (M. Erb)—Marguerite Caproni.
Violin selection—Thelma Mulligan.
"Western Flyer" (J. Morton)—Elizabeth Drennan.

"Nodding Roses" (J. Rand)—Hazel Larkin, Helen Fisher.
(a) "At Twilight" (C. Gaensehals) (b) "Water Sprites at Play" (S. Heller)—Annette Desmond.

"Little Indian March" (C. Henlein) — Iola Rasp.
"Good Night Chorus" (Geo. Spanioling)—Class.

An unexpected feature of the evening was a beautiful rendition of a Shumann number by Jacob Reindinger, a pupil of the senior class, who played by request. This student shows a mastery of the bow which renders his playing truly soful.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the "Little Brick" church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emmons on Kentucky street. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. Thomas Webster and daughter, Miss Marie, of Second street have returned home after spending a few days in Cincinnati.

THREE EPICHS IN WOMAN'S LIFE.

There are three critical stages in a woman's life which leave their mark on her career—the first, when she changes from a care-free girl to a woman, the second motherhood, and the third is change of life. Most of the misery which comes to women through ill health dates from one or another of these periods, but women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable remedy and has been very successful in overcoming the ailments which may come to them at these times, as it is a natural restorative for such conditions. Nearly a half a century of success entitled Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded woman.
